

GITTERMANGALLERY

Save your fellow men and yourself Get on your knees and you'll find rumors or neighborliness popping out of your mind faster than you can spit water

Read if yours intellectual and philosophical read the Common Mordantly American Dilemma - every bit of it, or as much as you can understand, and come to know its only 1456 pages and you'll come to know really where we are and how we got there - This thing boils down to the devotion to objectness -

The Catholic church in N.Y. + Georgia and elsewhere is getting the jump ^{on} the race of humanism and applied x-radiation. The north church has the opportunity now to take sensational but dignified by deliberate leadership in the Protestant field.

If I were a pope I would take generous appreciation for their ~~best~~ recognition of race equality in the high echelons of the Catholic church.
